Furniture of Worthy Quality, Artistic Value, Genuine Service and True Economy In the Furniture Sale.

We promised you at the beginning that this sale would include Furniture for all parts of the home, and in all finishes of wood, and so today we bring to your attention several styles that we have not talked of before, and which we consider more interesting to a greater number of people than any we have told about.

It would be well for patrons to remember that this is the first Furniture Sale in which we have ever offered so many fine pieces of Period Furniture, genuine examples of the famous designer's rare art and taste, and pieces equally as beautiful that modern thought has evolved from careful study of these older periods.

The Furniture is as fine as can be, and the prices as low as you are safe in paying

"But in the Next Administration the White House Occupant Won't Dictate," He Says.

President Wilson was charged on the of the House yesterday with hav-ofluenced the Int-retate Commerce alssion to grant the 5 per cent incommission to grant the a per cent in-crease in freight rates to the Eastern railroads. The accusation was made by Representative Good, of Iowa, and no sooner had be intered it than he found himself the center of a whirlwind denials and counter charges hurled him by the President's supporters. As a preface to his charges, Repre-As a preface to his charges, Representative Good read the planks of the Baltimore platform which favor as low transportation rates as possible. He also read President Wilson's letter written before he became a Presidential candidate, in which he expressed the long that semething dignified could be done "to knock Ervan into a cocked hat." Then Mr. Good said that the "great at accomplishment of this administration" had been brought about by the increase of freight rates, in that it would present "Mr. Bream from go.
